

LEGISLATURE IS NOW IN RUNNING ORDER

Governor Gillett Has Signed Salary and Mileage Bills

PERKINS ELECTION IS SURE THING TOMORROW

Committees Are Named Today by Speaker Stanton

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Senator Perkins will be re-elected to the Senate at noon tomorrow. Aside from a few disaffected Republicans, Perkins will receive the solid vote of his party, practically two-thirds of the legislature. Twenty-nine complimentary Democratic votes will be cast for some candidate to be selected at the caucus this evening. Flannery, Phelan, Bell, Dockweiler and Langdon are all in the race, and there is some talk of Senator J. B. Sanford.

SALARY AND MILEAGE BILLS ARE NOW SIGNED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Governor Gillett today signed Senate bills one and two, providing, providing for salary and mileage of legislators. Sixty bills were introduced in the Senate today, making a total of two hundred and thirty for this session. Among them was Miller's demurrage law.

Wolfe introduced bills for the improvement of the conditions of working men; that employment agencies be regulated, child labor be restricted, and the compulsory education of children be enforced. Anthony introduced a bill for the establishment of a state commission of immigration.

COUNTY DIVISION WILL BE A STORM CENTER

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—County division promises to be a storm center. Several statute members propose to use the existing county division act as a club to secure the support of certain measures.

It is whispered that several county division measures will be introduced for the sole purpose of frightening some weak supporters of the anti-track gambling bill, into abandoning the cause.

Senator Willis of San Bernardino, stated Saturday that he anticipated no trouble. He said the county division act passed last session, had spiked several secession movements, such as Pomona's effort to become a separate county. To make splitting counties still harder, he proposes to introduce a measure amending the county division act so as to require not only a 65 per cent vote in the district wishing to separate, but a majority vote in the district left. Willis believes the amendment will meet favor.

SUPERIOR JUDGES BILL MAY NOT BE FAVORED

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The Los Angeles delegation is not positive that Rich's bill providing three additional superior judges will receive a favorable vote in the legislature.

Too many other cities are clamoring for the same thing, and the upshot will probably be that none will get what they ask.

San Francisco wants four, Alameda wants two, San Luis Obispo and San Diego each want one.

Press Satisfied With Laws

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The executive committee of the California Press Association, the state organization of California newspapers, was in session here today considering legislation. President Richardson said the association would ask little, the present laws being generally satisfactory.

MOVEMENT STARTED FOR NEW DRAINAGE DISTRICT

NEW ROADS ARE ALSO MUCH NEEDED

Ranchers of Polloremo and Old Newport Sections Have Committees at Work

SURVEYOR REPORTS ON PROPOSED COURSES

Irvine Suggests Building Levy; Would Put 2500 Acres in District

As the result of the meeting of property owners in the Old Newport and Polloremo districts here last Saturday afternoon, two committees are commissioned to form definite plans for the organization of a drainage district and the opening of much needed roads in the district. The lay of the land was explained to the property owners by Surveyor S. H. Finley, and a general discussion of the situation showed an unanimous sentiment in favor of drainage. James McFadden was selected as chairman of the meeting and C. F. Heil secretary.

Three Courses

Col. Finley explained that there were three possible courses to be taken in the building of a drainage ditch that would head somewhere in the vicinity of the foot of Main street. One of these would be to begin near Main street and run to the head of the bay near the old ranch-house. The fall here would not be as good as elsewhere and the ditch would cost more than one of the other ditches proposed. Another course would be to go west to the slough and empty into the Talbert drainage ditch. The objection to this would be the danger of filling of the ditch from the sands of the Santa Ana river.

Met Most Favor

The third course proposed was the one that seemed to meet with general favor. This ditch would head in the low spot in McFadden's pasture, run through the alkali lakes south to tide-water. The fall from McFadden's pasture to tide-water would be about forty feet, and the ditch would be easy to build. The cut necessary to break over the low spot in the pasture.

BEACH CITY PETITION UP

The Board of Supervisors this afternoon granted the petition of Huntington Beach citizens for incorporation, but reduced the limits somewhat from those named in the petition. A quarter of a mile was lopped off the north, Borchard's property was let out and a strip was taken off the south side, reducing the acreage of the Bolsa Land Co., P. E. and S. P.

The election is Feb. 9.

The Board of Supervisors today heard the petitioners for the incorporation of Huntington Beach and heard the five remonstrators, the Huntington Beach Co., the Bolsa Land Co., the Pacific Electric, the Southern Pacific and John Borchard. The Huntington Beach Co. wanted the north line put a half-mile further south. C. W. Warner, T. B. Talbert, S. H. Finley and Victor Montgomery spoke for the petitioners.

The claim of the petitioners is that the territory is none too large, that all the land included in the proposed limits would be benefited by incorporation, that the present value of the lands is due to the development of the beach city.

GUILLOTINE TO GO TO WORK IN FRANCE

People Clamor for Death of Men Already Condemned to Die

BETHUNE, France, Jan. 11.—Amid cries of "Death to bandits," Abel Auguste Poillet, Canute Vremant, and Theophile Doree, were guillotined today near the prison wall. The execution is the first to take place in France for three years. The executed men were convicted of eighteen murders and one hundred and eighty robberies.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—All France is waiting with intense interest the action that will be taken by President Fallieres when the execution of criminals on the guillotine is begun. Forced by the unprecedented wave of crime that is sweeping over the republic, to insist upon the restoration of this ancient form of punishment, the people are now clamoring for its enforcement against twenty men under sentence of death for murder.

President Fallieres is reluctant to concede to the popular demand, and will probably attempt to compromise by having three or four criminals guillotined and then using executive clemency. It is feared this will precipitate a crisis.

TO LIVE FOR WEEK "AS JESUS WOULD"

Is Pledge of Hundreds of Young People in Southern California

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—Pledging themselves to live for one week "as Jesus would," hundreds of young persons stood in their various religious meetings yesterday, these services being among the most impressive ever held in Los Angeles. All the Baptist young people of Southern California, as represented by their state convention now in session here, have taken up the idea, while both the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association have placed themselves on record to co-operate for a week's special exemplification of the Christ life.

The movement, begun in the Cleveland, Ohio, churches last Sunday, when hundreds of Christians agreed to devote one week to emphasize their religious faith, has met with widespread favor here.

PHYSICIAN SAYS PIGS' BLOOD WILL CURE TUBERCULOSIS

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Pigs' blood medicinally prepared is of the highest value in the cure of incipient tuberculosis, according to an announcement made by Dr. Daniel E. Rickardo.

By experiments carried on independently, Dr. Rickardo says he arrived at the same conclusion as Dr. R. J. Rosenberger, of Philadelphia, that tuberculosis first manifests itself in the blood of the patient.

"I hold pigs' blood to be of the highest value in tuberculosis cases," declared the physician. "The reason for that is that pigs' blood contains more hemoglobin than cows' blood. Swine are fed better than cattle, and there is a heavy strain on the cows from being milked. Cattle also are subject to tuberculosis, while I have never heard of a case of that disease among swine."

PRESIDENT'S SITUATION IS QUEER ONE

The Idol of His Country He is Practically Under Investigation

BY CONGRESS AS TO STEPS HE HAS TAKEN

Serene Under Attacks Roosevelt Still Continues to Do Business

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A subcommittee of the Senate judiciary committee was appointed to consider whether the president had the authority to permit the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the Steel Trust. The subcommittee is made up as follows: Clark of Wyoming, Dillingham of Vermont, Kitchredge of South Dakota, Culberson of Texas, and Overman of North Carolina.

UNIQUE SPECTACLE NOW PRESENTED IN CONGRESS

There is no law under which the president may be investigated by congress, or forced to appear before a court or committee to give testimony; but at the present time there are three committees at work, or shortly to begin work, under authorization of congress, whose purpose—not in name but in fact—is to investigate the president of the United States.

Two of these are committees to investigate secret service—one for the Senate and one for the House, and the third is the Senate committee on judiciary, which has been ordered to report whether the president had any legal authority to consent to the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the Steel Trust. The frank intimation with regard to each of these investigations is that the president has violated the law—in the secret service matter by exceeding the limitations of the statutes in the use of the secret police; in the steel merger by deliberately restraining the attorney general from proceeding against the merger under the Sherman anti-trust law.

What if these committees report that the law was violated by the sanction of the president? So far has the warfare on the president progressed that the extraordinary suggestion was made in one of the Senate cloak rooms the other day that if Roosevelt had six months or a year more to serve instead of less than two months, impeachment proceedings might be instituted against him and with fair hopes of securing a conviction.

To this white heat have the members lashed themselves. As the matter stands the investigations that have been ordered will be pressed and every possible effort made to discredit the president.

Rumors are flying thick and fast. The latest is that a coolness has sprung up between President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft. It is attributed to the fact that Taft has decided to keep out of his cabinet all of the men who have been closely identified with the Roosevelt regime. For illustration, the rejection by Taft of Mr. Loeb, the president's secretary, is pointed to. But there is no proof that Mr. Loeb has been rejected yet. The latest dispatch from Augusta specifically says that a secretary of state and a postmaster general have been selected and no further cabinet announcements will be made until March 4.

AGED WANDERER IS FOUND SAFE AND SOUND AT EL TORO

A. R. Alvord, the aged man who lives with his son-in-law, W. E. Barnum on Fairhaven avenue, and who disappeared from his home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, was located yesterday morning at El Tero and was returned to his home, where his wife and daughter, half hysterical over the disappearance, anxiously awaited news of him. Where Alvord spent Friday night is not known. Saturday night he spent at a house in El Tero, where he arrived about 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Searchers who were out all day Saturday were unable to locate the old man, who had last been seen Friday evening near the rifle range at the edge of the foothills northeast of Tustin. Saturday night word was received by Sheriff Lacy that a man answering Alvord's description had been seen that day on the new Trabuco canyon road northeast of El Tero. He had passed by a gang of bridge builders who were at work on a new bridge on the road, but as none of the men knew of the old man's disappearance he was not stopped.

Early yesterday morning Sheriff Lacy, with W. E. Barnum, the son-in-law, went out in an automobile driven by A. B. Henrickson. On the edge of the Whiting ranch at the Johnson ranchhouse they learned that the old man had been given something to eat the evening before. He had gone on from that place. In Johnson's rig the sheriff and Johnson went up toward the foothills where Waller's ranchhouse is located, while the automobile went on to El Tero.

At El Tero the man was located in a house opposite the warehouse, the home of J. W. De Long. After going up the road toward the Trabuco the old man had turned back and walked into El Tero.

Alvord in his wandering must have walked over twenty miles. Though worn out, he suffered no great harm from his adventure. He cannot say where he spent Friday night. His clothes did not bear marks of having been in the mud. Alvord says he was out only for a short walk and can not realize that he was away from home for more than a few minutes. Alvord is 79 years of age.

Orange County

A Choice Jewel In A Small Setting

(From the Midwinter number of the Los Angeles Times) Facts and Figures

Orange county, the smallest in area of the Southern California counties, in 1908 produced $9,000,000 in wealth, more than half its assessed valuation of $17,562,280, which assessed valuation is $1,000,000 more than was the 1907 assessment. With the exception of $1,487,000 the entire $9,000,000 of wealth produced came from lands irrigated by water taken from the Santa Ana river and Santiago creek, pumping plants and artesian wells. This year 239 pumping plants were operated in this county. Each year the amount of land taken from extensive farming and placed to intensive farming increases. This is instanced by the fact that of the 1,511,950 fruit trees in the county 533,000 of them are still too young to bear fruit. Of the 222,250 walnut trees, which this year produced 6,624,575 pounds, worth $994,950, a 15-per-cent raise over 1907, 85,250 are not yet in bearing.

The Santiago Orange Growers Association, made up of a large number of Orange county orange and lemon growers, during the season of 1907-1908 handled 120,450 boxes of fruit and distributed $165,728.43 to the growers. The cost of handling the fruit on the cooperative basis was $0.4416 per box, including picking, hauling, packing-house and selling expense.

Some ideas of the year's varied farm productions may be had from the following figures: Total production of barley, $325,000; other cereals, $69,000; hay, $393,000; apricots, green, $20,000; dried, $112,000; cabbage, $16,380; celery, $402,896; grapes, $81,000; lemons, $102,024; olives, $37,500; oranges, $1,135,130; peaches, $98,000;

Irish potatoes, $330,000; sweet potatoes, $50,000; berries, $43,000; tomatoes, $57,000; peanuts, $37,700; walnuts, $994,950; wines and beer, $85,000; fish, $27,916; dairy products, $450,000; live stock, $630,000; poultry, $99,000; eggs, $630,000; honey, $30,000; sugar beets, $368,000; chile peppers, $68,000; green peas, $87,000; green beans, $44,800; crude oil, $1,487,000.

In irrigation projects, the Anaheim Union Water Company has finished a big reservoir at Yorba, and this company and the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company have plans for spending $350,000 in water development in the Santa Ana Canyon.

A new $550,000 sugar factory is being built two miles south of Santa Ana, and 10,000 acres of beets have been contracted for for delivery next season, opening up for cultivation hundreds of acres that hitherto have been pasture land. The owner of the new factory is the Southern California Sugar Company, the entire capital stock being held by men of Santa Ana. The Los Alamitos sugar factory this year produced 5,600,000 pounds of sugar. Orange county shipped 9,000 tons of beets to the sugar factories at Chino and Oxnard.

Electric Railways Building

To the central and western portion of the county the most important advance of the year, aside from the starting of the new sugar factory, is the electric road from Santa Ana to Huntington Beach, now under course of construction. Track has been laid to the new sugar factory site on South Main street, Santa Ana. This winter it will cross into the rich peatlands, giving the ranchers transportation facilities. Equally as important to the north end of the county is the building of the electric road into the La Habra valley from Los Nietos, cars beginning to travel in October. Ultimately this line will extend to Yorba and thence up the Santa Ana Canyon to Riverside. Both this line and the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach lines are Pacific Electric property.

The nursery business has grown in importance. Orange county nurseries have more than doubled their stock and have shipped trees into other counties and into Mexico. The Thomson nurseries of Villa Park have made a specialty of eucalyptus, realizing the vast importance of the growing of eucalyptus. Forty men are engaged in taking care of 5,000,000 tiny trees, which will be planted at different places in Southern California this winter. The Santa Ana Easter Lily Company has 250,000 plants set out and will be shipping immune lily bulbs next season.

There may have been a financial panic elsewhere, but Orange county never had cause to notice it. Crops were just as good and large as ever—with a few exceptions, apricots and walnuts being larger, and celery and cabbage being smaller—and prices were normal. The number of homes in the county increased and ranchers continued to build finer homes and buy automobiles just as they did before there was thought of financial distress in other places.

Orange county this year decided to have an annual celebration of its wealth of land and productions, and for three days in October it conducted its Carnival of Products, showing in parade form its scores of wealth-making industries and its flowers and beautiful environment. Twenty-five thousand people visited the county during the celebration.

STUDENT BAND WORK SUCCESS

Y.M.C.A. Meetings at Orange
Proved Excellent and Were Effective

The Union Meeting Last Night
Brought Out a Large Crowd

Last evening was the last evening of the series of meetings, conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., which commenced on New Year's eve. The young men had intended to carry the meetings for one week only, but the interest manifested was so great that they were continued up to last evening. The music during this period has been under the guidance of Mr. Behan, a "man of the world" and a leader among his set, who was converted thirteen months ago and has since that time been a power for good in the Christian world. Last evening twenty-three young men, recent converts, came over from Garden Grove and Anaheim and took charge of the union service here. Four young men of fifteen to sixteen years were last night added to the list of converts for this series of meetings in Orange.

It is indeed remarkable the way in which the young men of the world are coming out in Christian life at present. They have before been the class hardest to reach, but at present they are the ones who are carrying forward the gospel work and with a vim and energy.

WILL HEAR RETURNED MISSIONARY SOON

Rev. Issett, a recently returned missionary from China will be in Orange on Tuesday, Jan. 19, and will speak in the evening at the Presbyterian church. This lecture promises to be of great interest and it is probable that the church will be filled to its utmost capacity.

It is hoped to arrange for a ladies' meeting at 3 o'clock on the same day.

SATURDAY'S GAME AN EASY VICTORY

Orange Boys Won From Long Beach Team by a Score of 68 to 22

The basketball game on Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. indoor court was simply a walkover for Orange, the score standing 68 to 22. A good crowd was out to witness the game. The Long Beach team was entirely out-classed by the home team thus making the game less exciting than was hoped.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Susan Abbott, who died at Hewes Hill last week, was the widow of Rev. G. S. Abbott.

Dr. Abbott, after twelve years in the pulpit, traveled in Europe at the invitation of his uncle, David Hewes. When he came back from abroad, the pulpit of the First Baptist church of San Francisco becoming vacant, Dr. Abbott was chosen to come out as their pastor. He served this church many years. He then took the Baptist church in Oakland. Dr. Abbott found he could not do the work the denomination needed simply by his voice in the pulpit, so he established a paper himself, called the Herald of Truth, which he and his wife edited for nine years without a single omission and with but very little aid and on his own responsibility, his young family assisting in the lighter work.

Publication work was the primary cause of his failing health and early death, which was about seven years ago. His uncle, Mr. Hewes, had loved and cared for him, taking him to Europe twice, and to California twice, had planted for him an orange grove of twenty acres here.

In the long life and valuable work of Rev. Dr. Abbott as mentioned above his wife was more than a helpmate, being qualified in heart and head to join her husband in his hard laborious work and fill every place in church and society life, where good judgment, taste and ability were required. She was called to fill many important places, among which were the president of the W. C. T. U., also vice-president of the Red Cross in San Francisco, president of the Red Cross in Oakland. She was an active worker in the Ebell society, and vice-president of the Tablola Hospital in Oakland. Such is only a brief and limited outline of her work, which naturally attracted to her the ablest minds, the more sacrificing spirits in civil and public life.

She leaves three sons, Granville Davis Abbott, Carl Hewes Abbott, and Dr. Philip Fanning Abbott.

TEN UNITED AT MORNING SERVICE

An unusually large number was out yesterday morning at the Presbyterian church to attend communion services. Ten new communicants united with the church at this time and many more expressed strong interest and will probably unite with the church at a later date.

Services at Villa Park

Rev. Rose conducted the morning services at his pastorate in Villa Park yesterday. His subject was "Fruit Bearing Christians." In the evening he spoke on "Thoughts on Revival, and a spirit of great interest was manifested by his audience. Next Sunday will be communion Sunday and the subject of the sermon will be "The Man of Sorrows." The Christian Endeavor meeting at Villa Park was led last evening by Miss Bessie Squires. The subject of the meeting was "Living for Eternity."

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better. In fact, the disease is growing worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated, teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One or three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

MUST PUBLISH THE NEWS

"It is, indeed, an interesting situation," remarked Mr. F. L. Williamson, of Pittsburg, Pa., when interviewed recently by a New York Telegram reporter, "when a number of leading citizens of a large city like New York send a letter to the newspapers of the city urging them not to print the details of a revolting murder trial.

"To my mind it only shows how much the best people of every community wish to see the moral atmosphere cleared and yet how little they know about the proper method of clearing it. How in the world can any sane citizen expect a wide awake newspaper to suppress real news? As long as the worst comes to light the press must chronicle it.

"I have forgotten who it was but I believe it was General Grant who said that the best way to get rid of a bad law was to enforce it. Just so with bad news. The best way to get rid of repulsive news is not by trying to suppress it but by printing it and then removing the rotten conditions of the social life which bring this news to the front.

"I do not believe that these good people who want the New York press to leave out the news of immoral doings have any idea of how bad the world is.

"They live in the midst of sanctified crime and do not know it until they sit some fine morning in their magnificent breakfast rooms and read about what has been going on at their very doorsteps, so to speak.

"They are greatly shocked. Such things should not be printed, they say, even if they did happen. A fine state of affairs we would have if the press smothered all the terrible things which our guardians of the peace and makers of law permit.

"No. The right way is to print the news in every form and let us get at the root of the depravity and remove the temptations, even the possibilities of such shocking crimes."

Home Again

Santa Ana, Cal., Jan. 9, 1909.
Editor Register:—After being absent from our friends and home for three months, wife and I have gladly returned, and we find no place like home, although we have partaken of all heart could wish while we have been gone, and excellent health was the best of all. We first visited San Francisco twenty-one days and found it rapidly building up. But devastation and ruin could be seen on every hand.

From there our next point was Newcastle, a great fruit growing district. When our train arrived we found our son John waiting for us to take us to his home. Newcastle has one church, three saloons, three stores, one hotel, etc., and a number of packing houses, where they have shipped as high as 29 carloads a day.

So, after enjoying the luxuries of this pleasant home for a month, we left for Crows Landing. This is a farming and dairy district, where nearly every one is growing wealthy. Money is so plentiful that it is hard to find one that wants to borrow. We found our children, Mr. and Mrs. Isam, very prosperous, worth about $50,000. So they don't know what it is to want. There are thousands of geese and ducks there, so we had a good supply of them, as well as all other things we wanted.

We find in these towns a great many saloons. Tracy has 13 saloons, three stores and three hotels. Crows Landing, three saloons, and it has only a few business houses; Newman, 13 saloons. So after our stay at Crows Landing, about five weeks, we returned here.

The Merchant's "Soft Snap"

"Yes," remarked the merchant to the newspaper reporter, "I have a snap. The wholesale houses send us duns every month and draw on us at sight; but if I send a bill, with polite request for payment, to a patron he comes in swearing mad and quits trading at my store. When I am hard up for ready money, many of those who owe me are paying cash for goods in Los Angeles, or are sending cash in advance to mail order houses. If I contribute money to any cause people say I am bidding for trade; if I don't they say I am a hog. Every day I am expected to dig up for everything that comes along, from a raffle ticket to a church fund, by people who say I ought to do this because they do part of their trading here. But the Los Angeles merchants and mail order houses neither buy raffle tickets nor help the cash in advance business; and if I were to ask for aid

Our State Prisons and Their Management

FROM THE BIENNIAL MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR J. N. GILLETT.

Our state prisons are being carefully and economically managed, and the very best of order and discipline exist in both. The building for the criminal insane now under course of construction at Folsom will soon be completed and ready for occupancy. The prison wall around Folsom, which was very much needed, is satisfactorily progressing.

Plans have been adopted for a new prison building at San Quentin and the same is now being constructed. When this building is completed the congested condition existing there will be relieved, and we will have a very much needed up-to-date prison.

At the close of the fifty-eighth fiscal year there were 1,549 prisoners at San Quentin, and at the close of the last fiscal year the number had increased to 1,702, a gain of 153.

The board of prison directors, in their biennial report to me, make a statement concerning the sale of jute grain bags, which is as follows: "We regret to report that the sale of grain bags during the past year has been much below the usual number, and, as a consequence, we have had to carry over from last year an excess of more than 2,000,000 bags. The reason we have been unable to dispose of this useful product of the jute mill has not been due to the fact that the price was excessive, but may be ascribed to the fact that the last legislature passed a law limiting our action and placing so many restrictions on the sales of bags that it is almost impossible to dispose of them. We believe the law defeats its own purpose. We believe that this law should be repealed and that the matter of the sale of the jute mill product at San Quentin should be entrusted to this board, giving them power to make rules and regulations for the sale of grain bags, subject to the approval of an advisory board consisting of the governor, the secretary of state, and the attorney general." If the law passed by the last legislature has had the effect of preventing the sales of grain bags because of its provisions, then I recommend that the question of amending the bill as suggested by the board of prison directors be considered.

At the commencement of my term of office I found many applications for clemency not acted upon by preceding governors. In addition, there have been several hundred new applications made. To properly pass upon these, so that justice might be done, would occupy the entire time of the executive to the exclusion of all other business. As a consequence, many cases fail to receive the attention they deserve, and some mistakes are necessarily made.

Our credit system furnishes a constant incentive to good conduct on the part of a prisoner. It may be accepted as a fact that a convict while under restraint, freed from the ordinary temptations of life, closely conforms to the prison rules. His daily gain of credits, his hope of parole and ultimate pardon, all tend to restrain him from wrongful acts.

Our present prison management, conducted along humane lines, working solely toward the material and moral welfare of those in their charge, has given this office extreme gratification. We must also attempt to devise a system which will tend to aid and assist a discharged prisoner to gain and retain the respect of his fellowmen.

The ordinary prisoner, upon release, is given clothing, five dollars, and a ticket to the place from whence he came. He may leave the prison with the best intentions, fully determined to redeem his past and regain his former standing among men. It is a matter of common knowledge, how society lines up against him, how he is hounded from pillar to post, branded as an outcast, until finally losing all hope, he is driven back to crime and prison.

The parole system overcomes much of this. The prisoner goes directly from the prison to employment. He must refrain from entering saloons, or drinking liquor, must avoid evil companions and be frugal and saving. The good results of this system have been manifest. One paroled prisoner whom I pardoned had accumulated $3,500 worth of property; another, now on parole, I understand has $4,500 deposited in a bank. The combined bank deposits of all paroled prisoners aggregate $39,776.03, a most creditable showing, in view of the fact that few have been on parole more than two years and many but a few months. At the same time, their conduct has been such that infractions of the rules have been reduced to the minimum. Less than ten per cent have violated their parole since the adoption of this system, while ninety per cent have made good, and are now conducting themselves as honest, upright, and industrious men.

So striking were the results attained by this system, that I adopted the rule, as an additional incentive, that all paroled prisoners who conducted themselves as honest and upright men for a period of not less than two years should receive a pardon after recommendation therefor by the board of prison directors.

At the same time I adopted the further rule that no person eligible to parole, other than one establishing his innocence of crime, should be pardoned until he had first applied for and received a parole. The advantages of this rule are manifest. It places pardons under the merit system, removing all question of undue influence or improper motives. A prisoner receives his parole solely because his prison life has been such as to justify the prison board and prison officers in believing his conduct outside the prison walls will be commendable, and that he will make good in every respect. He receives his pardon because he has shown that their confidence was not misplaced. Both parole and pardon are based upon previous good conduct and nothing else.

Under our laws, the only prisoners eligible to parole are first termers. A second term cannot be paroled. This should be remedied. Equal privileges should be extended to all classes of prisoners, leaving to the prison board the determination of the suitability of the particular individual to receive parole. There is no reason to believe that this board will abuse any discretion reposed in it, and there is much reason to expect good results from the release of many second termers under the wise provisions of the parole laws and regulations.

Prisoners confined in county jails and city prisons can only be released after sentence, by pardon or commutation at the hands of the governor. Many of these cases are meritorious, but the method of procedure is entirely too cumbersome, and the results in many cases unsatisfactory. Even when properly presented, the Executive is placed at a great disadvantage in giving a correct judgment. Some simpler means for obtaining a release, beneficial alike to the prisoner and to the people, should be provided. I would suggest that laws be passed vesting in county boards of supervisors and municipal legislative officers the power, under appropriate regulations and conditions, to parole prisoners confined in county jails or city prisons.

We have noticed that sometimes a hit or a "streak of luck" has opened wide the door to success, but we have found the safest plan to be that ever present duty on the old farm "way down east—we just DUG, and we are still digging, albeit the digging is easier and it don't take so long to fill the basket as it did, when long years ago we first began to dig, and there is fun in digging.

A short time ago a young man complained that there is "no chance these days" for him and no opening in sight; while we noticed that he wanted to begin where the Old Man left off, and there's the rub.

Baraca Class Banquet

The Baraca class of the M. E. church, South, gave a delightful banquet and entertainment on last Friday night at the G. A. R. hall, at which eighty guests were present. A fine program was given, including a vocal solo by Sewall Roberts, cornet solo by R. Paul Cronenberger, a vocal duet by Clifford Johnston and David Todd, a reading by Robert Perry, vocal solo by Ben Riesland, male quartette sung by Messrs. Todd, Riesland, Johnston and Warne, piano solo by Harry Warne.

The spread, consisting of sandwiches and coffee, salads and brick ice cream, was served in the banquet hall, Francis Potter catering in fine style.

Toasts were given, with Charles Martin as toastmaster, as follows: "Our Fair Guests," Ben Riesland responding; "Boys, as I See Them," Cora Siefert; "Our Class," Harry Warne; "The Mystery of a Girl," Robert Perry.

Following the banquet and toasts, the company adjourned to the reception hall, where merry games passed the evening, until a late hour. The successful affair was under the direction of the social committee, Messrs. Chas. Martin, chairman, Emmett Hayes, Gordon Williamson. The officers of the Baraca class are Messrs. Ben Riesland, president; Chas. Martin, vice-president; Emmett Hayes, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Harper is the teacher, assisted by Harry Warne.

G. A. Edgar and G. W. Angle returned today from a trip to the oil fields at Bakerfield.

Miss May Haney left yesterday for Los Angeles. From there she will go to Arizona for a stay of a few weeks. Miss Haney has made many friends here during her three or four weeks sojourn in Santa Ana.

Miss Carolyn Cutler and Miss Enid Beheymmer, came down from Los Angeles yesterday and are guests of Misses Leslie and Hazel Roberts.

Mrs. Welbon to Speak

All who are interested in missionary work or who wish an opportunity to hear Mrs. Welbon, are cordially invited to be present at this meeting.

Art Club Meeting

The Art Club will meet with Mrs. Montgomery tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, for a social evening. All members are requested to be present.

Philharmonic Quintette Tonight

The second entertainment in the course given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. C., will occur tonight at Spurgeon's Hall, the club presenting the Philharmonic Quintette as the attraction for the occasion.

This quintette won fine recognition in a tour recently given in the northern part of the state. There are pleasing features in the varied program to be given that will appeal to many tastes. Grand opera for those fond of classical music, ballads for the lovers of more catchy melodies, besides readings and whistling numbers.

The fact that the whistler of the quintette is Miss Enid Lynn Beheymmer, and the reader is Miss Herndon, both known here, will lend attraction to the event. Both of them have appeared here in the past, but each has had added opportunity to improve on already excellent work.

It might be offered as a forcible suggestion that this is an opportunity to substantially assist the Young Men's Club. By buying tickets for this entertainment, you will secure not only a pleasant evening, but will "boost" a worthy institution in which this community is deeply interested.

Entertained Boys of Team

Houston Reeves of the High School boys' basketball team was host on last Saturday night in his Tustin home to the rest of the team. An elegant four course dinner was served at which covers were laid for the host, Messrs. Andrew Smiley, Howard Hankey, Roy Warren, Eugene McCarter, Roy Lance, Gordon Williamson, Archie Burkett, Eddie Vanderlip. Music and conversation passed the evening that followed and the young men had a jolly, pleasant time.

Installed Officers Together

The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of America, held a joint installation at the K. P. Hall Friday night in the presence of a large crowd. There were quite a number present from eastern camps.

Neighbor Tibbetts installed for the Woodmen, assisted by Chief Forester Neighbor Pickles. Elizabeth Von Allmen, as Past Oracle, installed for the Royal Neighbors, assisted by Ethel Trickey as Ceremonial Marshal.

At the close of the installation Margaret Eaton, on behalf of the other members of the camp, presented the retiring Oracle, Mary Claycomb, with a lovely bouquet of violets in appreciation for her faithful work the past two years.

Later all repaired to the banquet room where all did ample justice to the supper that had been prepared by the committee.

An Afternoon Party

Mrs. B. F. Beswick, after a successful six months term as Noble Grand of Torosa Rebekah Lodge, is about to retire for her successor, Mrs. Montgomery, who will be inducted into office Wednesday night. Prior to retiring, however, Mrs. Beswick very delightfully entertained her degree staff on last Friday afternoon. East guest was asked to take with her a bottle, with the result that a most heterogeneous collection of bottles, little bottles, big bottles, fat bottles, slim bottles, round, bottles and fat bottles were assembled. What should be done then but that the hostess should direct each one to dress her bottle as a doll; Mrs. Beswick producing an ample supply of cotton wadding, crepe paper and baby ribbon. The result may be guessed but scarcely realized, for such a job lot of dolls was never seen before. Of course, there was more fun in such a diversion than there were bottles to dress.

After the merriment had subsided a guessing contest ensued, Mrs. Theo. Lacy winning the prize, a pretty china plate.

The parlor had been prettily decorated with roses for the afternoon, and the dining room was sweet with violets. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Beswick to her guests, who were Mesdames Buck, Bridgeford, Bishop, Elliott, Mitchell, Livesey, Bowers, Ward, Phipps, Ford, Montgomery, Young, Curtice, Parsons, Lacy, Squires, Bud Lacy, Adams, Misses Schmiedeberg, Head, Gully, Slocum, Morgan, Patterson, Bess Lacy; Mrs. Watson of San Diego.

Mrs. Beswick was assisted by her charming daughter, little Miss Katherine.

Misses Harriett and Esther Preble of Los Angeles were over Sunday guests of their parents and friends, returning to the city last night.

Mrs. Clara Cook returned to El Toro yesterday, having been in Santa Ana several days. She came up for the M. W. A. and R. N. A. installation Friday night.

Mrs. Helen Edmonds who is spending the winter in California, is a guest of her nephew, E. J. Eaton and family.

KING MANUEL RODE IN CITY TO QUIET RUMOR OF ILLNESS

LISBON, Jan. 11, via Badajoz, (Spain)—In order to dissipate the rumors current here that his recent illness had entailed lung trouble, King Manuel, attired in the uniform of a field marshal, rode through the principal streets, followed by a brilliant staff. SANTA ANA DISTRICT ENDORSED PROPOSED RAISE TO $500,000

Discussion Taken Part in by Engineer Kellogg, Nisson, Spurgeon and Drake

The stockholders of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co. of the Santa Ana district on Saturday afternoon passed a resolution endorsing the proposed raise of the capitalization of the company from $100,000 to $500,000. The vote on the resolution was taken after a discussion lasting over two hours and was given without a dissenting vote. It was asserted after the meeting that when the meeting began a large proportion of the stockholders present were against the raise in capitalization, but that the effect of the talks of the afternoon were to dispel doubt in many minds and bring men to favor the raise.

As was reported in Saturday's Register, S. Armor was chairman of the meeting and A. C. Tiede secretary.

Engineer H. Clay Kellogg was called on to present the plans of improvement in the Santa Ana canyon. He produced a map, and he explained the necessary steps to be taken that would result in greatly increasing the water supply. The plan was the same presented to the stockholders through the Register by Henri F. Gardner. Following the engineer's talk, M. Nisson, a director of the company, was called on, and he clearly set forth the position of the board in reply to questions put to the board by S. J. Jackman. He argued the necessity of an increased water supply, and said the money for securing the improvements could not possibly be obtained under the present capitalization. He said the stock of the S. A. V. I. Co. is worth $1,280,000, yet the capitalization is $100,000 and loans of money must be made on the capitalization.

W. H. Spurgeon, who was one of the founders of the company, and Director Drake of the irrigation company board, both spoke in favor of the proposed amendment. The resolution endorsing the raise in capitalization from $100,000 to $500,000 was then made and carried unanimously.

OREGON LEGISLATURE IS THE FOCUS OF ATTENTION

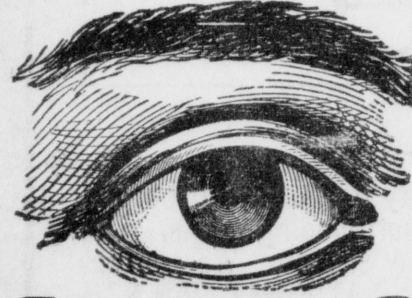

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 11.—With the eyes of a nation focussed upon it, with the voters of this state, in particular, awaiting the outcome with keen interest, the Oregon legislature convened today for a forty-day session with the prospect of being the scene of the most extraordinary senatorial contest ever held in any legislative hall in the country.

Nowhere has a more unique situation growing out of a fight for a seat in the United States senate ever developed. This is true because of the fact that both branches of the Oregon legislature, which is overwhelmingly Republican, are facing the proposition of giving the senatorial plum to a Democrat, George E. Chamberlain, now governor of the state and the people's choice for the high position. Otherwise they must repudiate the pledges made to the voters and elect a Republican.

Present indications are that every one of the fifty-two legislators elected on "Statement No. 1," which provides for the election of United States senators by the vote of the people, will stand by their pledge and send Chamberlain to the upper house of Congress, although the pill will be a bitter one to swallow.

From the time Governor Chamberlain defeated Judge H. M. Cake, his Republican opponent, at the last general election in June until the present day the contest has been replete with exciting features in a political war.

First of all, Judge Cake defeated Senator Charles W. Fulton, whose term soon expires, in the primaries. The Fultonites then raised the cry

CHANGED HER NAME AGAIN

Woman Who is Suing the Carpenter Estate Married on Nov. 19

It is neither Fannie M. French nor Fannie French Carpenter. It is now Fannie M. Chaffee. On Nov. 19 last the woman who brought suit against Mrs. M. Alice Carpenter and claimed $1740 from W. R. Carpenter's estate, was married to Charles G. Chaffee. This fact was disclosed this morning when the second amended complaint of the woman against the Carpenter estate was filed with County Clerk Williams. Instead of "Fannie French Carpenter, plaintiff," appears "Fannie M. Chaffee and Charles C. Chaffee, plaintiffs."

The amended complaint states that Fannie M. French intermarried on Nov. 19, 1908, with Charles G. Chaffee.

W. R. Carpenter was county superintendent of schools of this county. He resigned from the position and went with Fannie M. French to Elmore county, Idaho, where he died on April 25. His wife, Mrs. M. Alice Carpenter, took out letters of administration, and Fannie M. French brought suit against the estate. Jarrott & Tyrrell of Los Angeles are her attorneys. The woman claimed that a ceremony was performed whereby she thought she became Carpenter's wife.

OBITUARY

Jane Elizabeth Hampton was a native of Ohio, being born in Miami county, May 19th, 1835.

She was married to Frank E. Fowler, a comrade of the Illinois Volunteers, at Macomb, McDonough county, Illinois, on August 10th, 1857. Of this union eight children were born, all being deceased except two, a son, W. H. Fowler, of Santa Ana, and a daughter, Mrs. W. L. Trapp, of Las Vegas, New Mexico, both of whom were at the bedside of their mother during her last long painful illness. Mrs. Fowler also leaves to mourn her loss a sister and a brother who resides in Macomb, Illinois.

Mrs. Fowler had been a widow for twenty-one years, her husband having died at Galesburg, Illinois, in 1888.

For years Mrs. Fowler has been a devoted member of the W. R. C., at one time serving as president of that organization in Galesburg, Illinois. She joined Sedgwick W. R. C. of Santa Ana in 1905 and by her death the order has lost a true and sincere friend.

Mrs. Fowler was a devoted mother and grandmother, and until her late illness has always led a very energetic and busy life. She was always mindful of the comforts of others, which endeared her to a wide circle of friends, the sympathy of whom goes out to the family of their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Fowler was a character around which many historic memories cluster. She was a personal friend of Abraham Lincoln, she and her soldier husband having entertained him at their home, at Carthage, Illinois. She was also present at the great Lincoln-Douglass Debate at Galesburg, Illinois, and one of the little mementoes that will be treasured by her relatives, is a daguerrotype of Lincoln, which he presented to her. She also possessed a flag which was carried through the war.

Everything that loving relatives and friends could do for Mrs. Fowler were of no avail and she passed away Tuesday morning, Jan. 5th, at the home of her son, 1102 Flower street, Santa Ana, Cal., at the age of 74 years.

The funeral was held at Winbigler's Chapel, at 2 p. m., Jan. 6th, Rev. J. A. Stevenson officiating. Her favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Lead Kindly Light," being rendered according to her request, also "Somewhere Some Place the Sun is Shining." The many floral tributes were silent reminders of the respect and esteem in which Mrs. Fowler was held.

Her remains were taken back to Macomb, Ill., to be placed beside those of her husband and children, being accompanied by her son, W. H. Fowler and daughter, who left on their sad mission Thursday evening, Jan. 7th.

"And today while bowed in sorrow,
Mid the scenes so drear and lone
Take this comfort for the morrow;
God has only claimed His own."

SOLID IN ICE IS COLUMBIA

People Crossed From Shore to Shore Yesterday at the Dalles

PORTLAND, Jan. 11.—For the first time in many years the Columbia river is frozen from shore to shore at The Dalles, and many people crossed the river on the ice yesterday. With the thermometer at The Dalles weather bureau station registering 8 degrees below zero and forecast of even colder weather, the river will probably be frozen over for many days. Further down, the Columbia river is not frozen over, but is filled with huge chunks of floating ice. River transportation has been abandoned.

RACE TRACK BILL HANGS IN BALANCE

Otheman Stevens, the Examiner's special correspondent at Sacramento, wired his paper yesterday as follows: "Don't you worry about the race-track bill," said one of the lobby leaders against the measure today. "It will be beaten all right, and the ponies will get the money for two years more at least. How are we going to beat it? That's our business, but beat it we will."

On the other hand, a man who is working overtime for the bill gave me his word today that he had twenty-three votes in the senate and over fifty in the house for the bill, which agrees exactly with the poll I made and guessed at day before yesterday. And he added: "I know exactly where the senate will in some way hang it up, but we will have just as good and better tacticians on the senate floor as the sports, and are not worrying."

Hardly anything could have done the opposition to the race-track bill more harm than Lieutenant Governor Porter's selections for the senate committee on morals to which the bill will go. The fact that he made the committee out of programers has aroused intense hostility, and has solidified many who were hesitating about favoring the bill. It will be bad politics to add fuel to the fire when the votes are scarce and when public opinion is ready to break out in a storm of condemnation.

If the race-track people wish to win they must use more savvy, for a minority rarely carries away what it wants by slapping a majority in the face. A clever hot air artist could yet save the tracks if he were equally an expert in trading votes.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION

—If you have indigestion, your food ferments in the stomach and bowels. It does more; it decays and the nutritious matter which should go to make new blood, decays with it, and this leads to an impoverished condition of the blood, to nervousness, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, bad breath, which disgusts your friends, and other disagreeable and unpleasant conditions.

And all this trouble is caused by the food that doesn't digest, but ferments and oftentimes rots in the stomach.

And fermentation is caused by the stomach not being strong enough and energetic enough to thoroughly mix the food with the digestive juices.

Mi-o-a is responsible for tens of thousands of cures. In fact, it is such a positive cure for indigestion and all stomach troubles that it is guaranteed by the Rowley Drug Co. to cure or money back. The price of a large box of Mi-o-a tablets is 50 cents, and they are sure to promptly relieve the worst case of indigestion or gastritis. Try them.

COAL MINE IS MINER'S TOMB

Twenty-six Men Thought to Have Been Killed in Gas Explosion

Joe Lieter's Famous Diggings at Zeigler Scene of Disaster

BENTON, Ill., Jan. 11.—Twenty-six miners were entombed and nineteen of them are known to have been killed by a mysterious explosion shortly after midnight Sunday morning, in the famous mine of the Zeigler Coal Company, at Zeigler. Most of the victims are thought to be Americans.

The fire is thought to have been caused by a spark from the electric motor coming in contact with a pocket of gas.

Lieter headed a band that descended into the mine, hoping to find some still alive.

AMERICAN DUCHESS DEAD

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Lily, Dowager Duchess of Marlborough, died of heart failure today at her home in Deepdeen, Dorking, England. She was the daughter of the late Comodore Price of New York, and formerly was Mrs. Lily Hamersmith.

FLEET ARRIVES AT QUAKE VISITED SPOT

NAPLES, Jan. 11.—The United States battleship Connecticut arrived here yesterday. Her sister ships of the squadron sent to the relief of the earthquake sufferers, the Vermont, Kansas and Minnesota, accompanied the Connecticut to Messina, but they did not come to Naples.

Owing to the fact that the whole country is in mourning, no salutes were fired. The sailors manned the sides of the Connecticut and flags were dipped. Ambassador Griscom was on board.

The Italian Admiral and port officers visited the Connecticut to express his respects to Admiral Sperry.

MOVEMENT STARTED DRAINAGE DISTRICT

ture is slight. In fact, the water would run out were a deep furrow put in. The distance to tidewater is three miles. This ditch would limit the drainage district on the west to the road that runs north and south at the Old Newport school-house, as the fall on the west of that line is toward the west.

Proposed Dike

The country in the district receives the flood waters from the hills to the east, coming across the Irvine Company pastures. James Irvine at the meeting Saturday said that he had laid plans to build a dike from near Aliso to the head of the bay, which would turn these waters into the bay. He suggested that it would be well for the district to take that dike into its operations. He would be willing to include about 2,500 acres of his land in the drainage district. By building this dike the drainage ditch through the alkali lakes could be made smaller and less expensive.

It was brought out that the ditch would furnish drainage for the sugar factory. It was asked if the output of the factory would not be such as would create a smell and nuisance. Mr. Irvine said he would not give a right of way for a drainage ditch that would create a nuisance, but it was said that there would be no nuisance created, for the reason that the product of the sugar factory that would create the bad odors would not be turned into the ditch but would be used in irrigation on adjoining lands as the output would be a very valuable fertilizer and would not be wasted by turning it into the bay. Even should there be a nuisance created it could quickly be stopped by injunction.

New Roads Needed

The matter of new roads in the territory was discussed, there being a very apparent need for several new roads. At present several ranchers have to make long detours in their travel. New roads on the east and west would be needed for easy access to the sugar factory.

One of the roads proposed is the extension of Bristol street south to Polloreno. Another one is the extension of the road east from Talbert to the sugar factory along the south side of the railroad right of way. A third road proposed was one east of Main street along the south line of J. G. Quick's place to the San Joaquin ranch line.

Meet at Call

It was decided to meet again at the call of the chairman, James McFadden, at a time when the two committees authorized to prepare reports had finished their work.

The committee to make a report on proposed new roads, what steps will be necessary to obtain them, etc., as appointed by the chairman is composed of Lawrence Wakeham, J. L. Jamieson, Charles F. Heil, Robert Speed and J. G. Quick.

The committee to report on the drainage district is S. H. Finley, James Irvine, John Cubbon, Dan Boyd and W. W. Armstrong.

TILLMAN REPLIES TO PRESIDENT'S CHARGES

ective of the nation. The speech of today was the climax of personal and political hatred existing for years between Tillman and Roosevelt.

"The president prepared his indictment with consummate skill," said Tillman. "He was even cunning in his apparent innocent pretense of making search through the secret service ostensibly for one kind of malefactor to run down another. Mark you he has been in possession of all the facts in this case since last July, and men may be curious to know why, if he is so zealously honest, he did not make them known."

Tillman dwelt at length upon the president's delay in making his charges.

Admitting the authenticity of the letters and telegrams attached to President Roosevelt's letter to Senator Hale, Tillman discussed at length the Oregon land deals leading up to his denunciation of Bryan Dorr for issuing a circular connecting Tillman with certain schemes.
